To Decide Future of Alumni Ass'n

After 47 years of existence the Pynchard alumni association has reached a critical stage in its existence, with some of its directors urging that it be disbanded, others urging its continuance. On June 6 an open meeting of the association will be held in the Memorial auditorium to definitely decide on the future of the association.

If it is decided to continue, the annual banquet will probably be held the week of graduation, which comes this year on June 14.

Shulze to Address Young Republicans

Emil J. C. Shulze, resident manager of the Ayer mill of the American Woolen company, will talk on "Reciprocal Trade" at the meeting of the Young Men's Republican club next Thursday evening in the Bank building, at 7.30. Routine business will be transacted and refreshments will be served.

Recreation Staff Is Appointed

The Andover Playground Committee has made the following appointments for this season: Supervisor, Miss Margaret Davis; Instructors—Miss Caroline Abbot, Mary Angus, James Bisset, Benjamin Dimlich, James Doherty, Elinor Driscoll, James Haggerty, Mildred Schruender, Donald Surrence, and George Zink.

Robert Bisset and William Deymond are the only two new appointments to the lifeguard staff at Pumps, with six guards and the matron being reappointed.

The staff will include head lifeguard Donald Dunn, Hussey's pond guard Woodrow Crowley; and Joseph L. Burns, Jr., holder of the Yale backstroke record; Frank McBride, Jr., Robert Hackney and Robert Nicoll. The pond will open June 20.

Mrs. William B. Cheever is ill at her home on Chestnut street.

Grange Becomes "Model Grange"

Andover Grange met on Tuesday evening to commemorate having reached the goal of "A Model Grange," one of two in Essex County and one of nine in Massachusetts. Five years of earnest endeavor gave this honor to Andover Grange. The lecturer, Mrs. Harry Dawson, whose enthusiasm made possible this achievement deserves a large share of the honor for her leadership. The following fine program was given after the close of the meeting:

Community singing; Selection by Andover Grange Orchestra; Miss Sylvia Robson, Emil Bernsson, violins; Walter Fuller, cornet; Philo Dewing, saxophone; and Miss Avis Robson, pianist; Greetings by Worthy Master, Roland Trauschke; Selections by Bancroft Quartet of Tyngsboro with Miss Anna Bancroft as accompanist; Accordion selections by Master Albert Johnson; Greetings from State Grange Overseer Harvey Turner; Letter of Greeting from National Secretary Harry Caton read by Mrs. Earle Ferguson; Selections by orchestra; Selections by Albert Johnson; Greetings from State Pomona Marion L. Johnson; Piano solo by Miss Anna Bancroft; What the Grange has meant to Me, Rev. Newman Matthews; What being a "Model Grange" did to us as a Grange, Master of Laurel and Master of Dunstable Grange; Closing song by the Grange.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. James Keating and committee.

This evening the Dramatic Club of the Grange will meet with Misses Wilma and Helen Corliss, Osgood road.

Free Church Players to Give Plays Again

Welcome news to local play-devotees was the announcement this week that the Free Church Players, inactive for the past few years, will again present a production on next Wednesday evening at 8 in the parish house. There are many new players in the cast, most prominent being Rev. Herman C. Johnson, who will shed his pastoral cloak for the evening to become Tod Hunter, dancing master. The play, entitled: "The Adventures of Grandpa," centers around Tod Hunter's dancing academy, which has been quarantined with its patrons inside.

The cast: Monte Ray, Grandpa's grandson, Everett Gorrie; Tod Hunter, dancing master, Rev. Herman C. Johnson; Otis Hammerhead, Grandpa, Thos. Gorrie; Officer McCormack, who seen his duty and done it, Stanley Swanton; Lucy Hunter, our little wife, Marjorie Hirst; Dorothy May, just out of college, Martha Thompson; Mrs. Pansy Hopscotch, fair, fat and forty, Isabel Maclaren; Marie Ribeau, the girl from Paris, Edna Anderson; and Kloomply, from Copenhagen, Helen Ferrier.

Game for Crowley Memorial Saturday

The first ball game for the Billy Crowley Memorial fund for the Pumps pond bathing beach will be held Saturday night at the playground at 6.30 between the Eagles and the Ballardvale team. Eddie Lefebvre is managing the Eagles. A collection is to be taken for the memorial.

ALPHA CLUB TO MEET

The Alpha Club of the Baptist church will hold its final meeting of the season in the church Sunday night at 7. The young people are planning an interesting program under the subject: "A Country God Has Blessed." The discussion will be led by Rev. Samuel Overstreet, who will show two reels of moving pictures to illustrate the topic. This will be an open meeting, to which the club cordially invites the public.

New Gates at Spring Grove

Memorial Day visitors at Spring Grove cemetery will notice a decided improvement in the approach to the cemetery, with a handsome new set of memorial gates having been erected, the lawn graded, reseeded and landscaped with several varieties of evergreens, and the sides of the entrance and street curbed.

The memorial gates comprise the first gift ever given to the cemetery since its incorporation in 1871, which is made all the more remarkable by the fact that it is a Haverhill resident and not an Andover one who made the gift, Miss Bertha M. Stevens, a native of Andover who is at present president of the Haverhill school committee and who has been on the board for 15 years, gave the cemetery the gate in memory of her father and mother, William H. Stevens and Elizabeth M. Stevens.

CALL 1250-R

The Townsman telephone number has been changed again to 1250-R in order to provide more ample communication service with the editor. The editor's home number is now 1250-W, and the lines are strapped together to permit answering in either place.

Plan Route for Memorial Day

General orders for Memorial Day have been issued by the committee as follows:

The Memorial Day Committee, comprised of representatives from Andover Post No. 8 American Legion and Andover Post No. 2128 Veterans of Foreign Wars, has voted that the entire parade on Memorial Day shall again visit the various cemeteries as a body, in a manner similar to that of last year.

The Order of March—Platoon of Police, Chief Marshal four Aides.

First Division—Andover Post No. 8, American Legion Drum Corps, Andover Post No. 8 American Legion, Squadron No. 8 Sons of the American Legion, Auxiliary to Post No. 8 American Legion.

Second Division—Andover Brass Band; Andover Post No. 2128 Veterans of Foreign Wars; Auxiliary to Andover Post No. 2128, V. F. W.; Auxiliary to Sons of Union Veterans.

Third Division—Clan MacPherson Pipe Band; British War Veterans Association of Andover; Auxiliary to B. E. W. V. Association of Andover.

Fourth Division—Boy Scouts; Girl Scouts; Busses for former members of

Wins Scholarship of Harvard Club

Each year the Harvard graduates resident in Andover and North Andover dig down into their pockets in order to help send a deserving Andover young man through his freshman year at Harvard. This year Allan Trott, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Trott of Central street, is the winner of the scholarship, it was announced Tuesday night as the Harvard Club of Andover enjoyed its annual dinner.

Re-elected to office on the recommendation of Dr. Alston H. Chase of the nominating committee were: G. Grenville Benedict, president; Irving Sargent, vice-president; Dino G. Valz, secretary-treasurer. Hereafter the election will come in October, to become effective in 1939.

The speaker was Professor Doriot of the Business school faculty. Atty. James H. Eaton also spoke.

Get the W.P.A. out Of the Woods

Isn't it about time that we stopped wasting money on making gravel boulevards in West Andover? For years all that we have seemed able to do here in Andover under the W.P.A. is dig up gravel from a gravel bank, transport it to an outlying road, dump it, spread it, then wait a year and do it all over again. As the melting snow and the spring rains wash away last year's gravel, last year's money is washed away with it.

We have for the last two years been spending $5,000 annually on hard-surfacing gravel roads. That is a good investment, but the $5,000 is not enough to take care of binding all the gravel put on under our W.P.A. allotment. If that gravel is not bound the same year as it is laid, the money is just wasted, just thrown to the winds in an effort to improve something that will in a few months be nothing more than a washboard again.

Andover should follow a definite policy in the future of not building any more gravel roads than it can bind in the same year. This year a great deal of this work has been done out in West Andover, not only by our own men but also by Lawrence men for whom the city officials had not conceived projects. Surely there is enough work to be done in Lawrence for those men to take care of, just as there is enough work to be done here in the town on non-wasteful projects for our own men to take care of.

Just before town meeting a dispatch came from Washington stating that road-blanketing projects had been approved in Andover which would bring a total W.P.A. grant to the town of about $71,000. The short-sighted way of looking at such an announcement would be to say that the federal government is giving us the money, so that it's not our money that's wasted. But it is our money; we're paying those W.P.A. labor bills by paying higher prices on all commodities affected by higher federal taxes. If the federal government is willing to allot $71,000 to Andover, why can't we use it on projects that are lasting, projects that we can point to with pride? At present our W.P.A. program can be summed up by saying: "That's a road the W.P.A. gravelled. It was all right last month just after they finished it."

Siftings

June is the month when the number of unemployed increases by the number of those who win diplomas.

Despite all the headlines it's been in, there probably will still be 93% of the people who won't know how to spell Czechoslovakia.

The tax rate is due in three weeks, but your primary interest is when the tax payment is due before interest starts.

Garden Club Show Very Successful

The attractive blossom-swept estate of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Johnson was the scene on Tuesday afternoon of the annual Garden club flower show. A large group attended the show to witness the exhibits and also to take delight in the Johnson garden and the trees on the drive.

The exhibits were of the usual painstaking excellence. No prizes were awarded but the judges graded the exhibits, giving a blue seal for excellence, red for very good, yellow for good. In many instances it was necessary to give several blues in one group. A special award was given Evelyn Ward for her work in the guest exhibit by the Ballardvale 4-H group.

Tea was served on the porch by a group of girls under Mrs. Charles Gabeler's committee. Scouts assisting as ushers were William Eastham, Ted Smith, Dick Moody, and Paul Hood.

The tea committee: Mrs. Gabeler, Mrs. Heinrich Rohrbach, Mrs. William Jaquith, Mrs. Robert Cushman, Mrs. Charles McDuffie, Miss Margaret Curran, Mrs. E. Dean Walen, Mrs. Rodney Brown, Mrs. George French, Mrs. Albert Morris, Mrs. Philip Allen, Mrs. Murray Howe.

The waitresses: Joyce Curran, Gisela Bolton, Muriel Wood, Bettie Weaver, Doris Sawyer, Madeleine Grout, Jeanne Sawyer, Susan Darling, Joan Waugh, Mary Elliot, Mary Toohy, Virginia Thayer, Olive Butler, Virginia Batcheller.

The exhibit awards: Class 1, (Flowers, white or ivory tone, in white or ivory container placed in lacquer red shadow box): yellow to Mrs. Charles W. Arnold, Mrs. Miles Malone.

Class 2, (Children): blue to Dorothy Abbott, Charlotte Leland, Peggy Kimball, Douglas Hart; red to Ann Walen, Constance Burns, Jack Gallagher, Shirley Sawyer, William Rich III; yellow to Joan Draper, Paul Leavitt, George Collins, Harry Dow III, Josephine Bernardin.

Obituaries

Mrs. George A. Dumont

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon for Mrs. George A. Dumont, at her home on Holt road by Rev. Herman C. Johnson. Burial was at Spring Grove.

Mrs. Dumont, who before her marriage was Elizabeth Dole, passed away Friday after a long illness. She was born in Andover 58 years ago.

She leaves besides Mr. Dumont, a son John Alvin; and a brother, Percy J. Dole.

Mrs. Mabel L. Stevens

Mrs. Mabel Louise Stevens passed away last Friday morning at her home, 197 High street, after an illness that had become serious last fall. She was born 64½ years ago in Framingham, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Witt. For the past 38 years she lived in Andover, her late husband having conducted a milk route for many years.

Surviving are two daughters, Beatrice of the junior high faculty and Dorothy; and two sons, Paul of Lowell and Ralph of Andover.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon by Rev. George F. Beecher of Lawrence, burial following in Wildwood cemetery, Ashland.

Mrs. John Sutcliffe

Mrs. John Sutcliffe passed away last Friday at her home, 94 North Main street, after two years' illness. She was born in Scotland, 42 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Auchterlonie, and had lived here for 30 years. She was a member of the Clan auxiliary.

She leaves four daughters: Mary, Dorothy, Ruth and Sarah Jane; five sisters, Mrs. Jessie Patterson of Andover, Mrs. Charles Stegeman, Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. John C. Mathison and Mrs. William Boyd of Jamaica Plain; two brothers, Kirk Auchterlonie of Jamaica Plain, and Alexander.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon by Rev. Frederick B. Noss, interment following in Spring Grove cemetery where the Clan auxiliary assisted in the committal services.

Mrs. David M. Black

Mrs. Mary F. Black, wife of David M. Black, passed away on Tuesday at her home, 36 Burnham road after a long illness. Born in Abroath, Scotland, 70 years ago, she had lived in Andover 34 years. She belonged to the Eastern Star and the Legion auxiliary.

Funeral services are to be held tomorrow afternoon at three, with burial following at West Parish.

The survivors are: four daughters, Mrs. Mary Robb of Andover; Mrs. Margaret Eldridge of Haverhill; Mrs. Christina Vannett of Andover; Mrs. Helen Jordan of Southboro; two sons, Alexander and David, Jr., and a sister, Mrs. Charles Hastings of Scotland.

A $750 Swing

"Let's swing it," is a common statement at school dances these days, but the Phillips academy faculty has been wondering recently whether the boys could swing it at the coming spring prom. There seems to be a craze among boys' prep schools for getting a nationally known orchestra for their proms, and the P. A. committee has signed up Art Shaw's orchestra, whom we never heard of until we saw his picture behind a clarinet or something in a recent Phillipian. But he really is somebody, for the P. A. newspaper says: "To those who pooh-pooh the merits of Shaw's orchestra comes the encouraging news that Victor has just bought up all the orchestra's recording contracts." And a second reason for assuming that he really is somebody is the fact that the boys are going to pay $750 for the orchestra, and says the faculty: "Can they swing it?"

A. P. C. ANNUAL PICNIC

The A. P. C. annual picnic will be held next Thursday evening, with Mrs. G. Richard Abbott, chairman, being assisted by Harriet Newman, Mrs. Charles Gregory, Mary Winkley, Beatrice Henderson, Irene Cole and Mrs. Leverett White.

The picnic will be held at Berry's Pond. All those planning to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Clifford Marshall or Irene Cole before Tuesday noon. In case of rain a picnic supper will be held in the South Church Vestry.

To Present Plays

On Friday night in Davis Hall the students in the preparatory English classes, under the direction of Miss Evelyn Rumney, their teacher, will present five original plays.

Those taking part follow:

Love in Bloom, by Elizabeth Travis, Marie Bertram, Phyllis Crocker, Anne Schoepflin, Eleanor Knox, Shirley Hamilton.

A Broken Vow, by Betty Killian, Ethel Ann Bolton, Mary Lou Sheedy, Ann Rogers, Vernice Moody of Ballardvale, Jayne Davey, Margaret Little of Andover.

The Hoax, by Madeleine Grout of Andover, Ruth Rathbone, Betty Harris, Helen Stott of Andover, Pat Arnold of Andover.

Varicella, by Margaret Little of Andover, Margery Martin, Joyce Curran of Andover, Marjorie Dean of Andover, Patsy Selden of Andover, Janet Dwight.

A Strange Case of Murder, by Joan Killian, Mary Howard, Nancy Eccles of Andover, Sue Long, Mary Dean Naff, Margaret Prudden, Priscilla Williams, Lee Burnett, Carolyn Cross.

Other students who are managing the productions, costuming, make-up and properties are: Sue Wallace, Phyllis Campbell of Andover, Joan Waugh of Andover and Sally Bradley.

The curtain will rise at 7:30, and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend.

Spring Field Day

The annual spring field day, which marks the end of the season in athletics, will take place on the back campus Saturday morning beginning at 9:15. Events will include finals in tennis, under the leadership of Constance Abbot; baseball, with Bobbie Scanlan leading the Gargoyles and Jane Currier leading the Griffins; and track and field events, under the leadership of Audrey Rugg. Minor sports finals will be played off in badminton, deck tennis, ping pong, croquet and archery. Barbara Rice of Andover, Griffin, and Jean Appleby, Gargoyle, will be matched for honors in golf.

Senior Banquet

On Saturday evening the Senior Class banquet will take place in the John Esther Art Gallery.

Rev. Winthrop H. Richardson, pastor of the Ward Hill Church, Haverhill, and Bible teacher at the Academy, will speak at the 7:30 vesper service on Sunday. Parents and friends are welcome.

Final examinations will be held from Tuesday, May 31 to Friday, June 3.

The annual memorial mass for the war dead will be held at St. Augustine's church at 9:45 Sunday morning. Members of the Legion and the auxiliary are to be at the Legion rooms promptly at nine.

All veterans and representatives of all patriotic organizations are invited to attend this service. Those attending this service in a body are requested to meet in Elm Square near the Musgrove Building at 9:15 A. M. on Sunday morning in order to march to the church.

BRITISH VETS' NOTICE

All British Ex-Service men are urged to take part Monday in the annual Memorial day exercises.

To Sell Ice Cream at Historic House

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shattuck have just embarked on the making and selling of ice cream, with the historic old "yellow house" of the Shattuck farm property on River road being used as the locale for the venture. Much of the house has been restored to its former appearance, with the exception of the ice cream room itself. Two rooms are being devoted to tables for those who wish to eat ice cream, cakes, and coffee inside.

The ice cream is manufactured before the customers' eyes in a machine which produces an unusual smoothness.

An interesting bit of history was revealed when upon tearing away plaster in the old house to make repairs a brick oven and old fireplace were uncovered, also heavy hand-hewn timbers used in its construction. This so aroused the interest of Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck that they determined to find more about the history of this old Noyes place, as they knew it. A search of old deeds and records by William Trow revealed that the house was built and occupied by David Abbot and his wife, Hannah Danforth about 1718 for David and Hannah were married that year and "he made for himself a farm at Merrimac Corners" (as the section was formerly called). The house passed down to their son Captain Jonathan Abbot, then to Benjamin and Nathan Abbot.

In the years 1818 and 1821 Benjamin and Nathan conveyed most of the property to Frederick Noyes. Nathan retained part of the land, also "one sixth of a right to take fish from the Merrimac River." Frederick Noyes in turn sold 80 acres in 1871 to the Shattuck Farm, conveying nearly all received of Benjamin and Nathan.

Red Cross Asks Aid for Chinese

The Andover Chapter of the American National Red Cross has received a second appeal urging it to complete its quota toward the $1,000,000 fund for the relief of the sufferings of civilians in China, who, having been deprived of their homes, are threatened with starvation and are suffering from disease. The men, women and children of a friendly people are the pitiful victims of a tragedy for which they are not responsible and their plight is in no way different than if they were suffering from a natural calamity. It is urged that Andover, out of its comparative abundance, give to them in their deep distress a measure of hope and encouragement.

Contributions may be sent to the Treasurer, Philip F. Ripley, 7 Abbot Street.

TABLE TENNIS EXHIBIT

A table tennis exhibit is to be given next Thursday evening at the West Church parish house at eight under the sponsorship of the Goose and Gander club.

The feature match will be between Paul Lund, Lawrence city champion, and Dana Wagenfelt, one of the ranking players in the Newton Table Tennis club. The preliminary match will be between Alan Abbott, 12 year old Lawrence junior champion, and Victor DeGregorio. There will also be other matches.

TO PRESENT "HUCK" FINN

The long delayed "Huckleberry Finn," which was postponed because of the scarlet fever epidemic, is being presented this afternoon and Friday evening, May 27, in the Memorial auditorium. The Junior High children are putting it on.

PUNCHARD WINS THREE

Punchard high's baseball team won three games in three consecutive days this week, running its winning streak to seven victories. On Monday Tewksbury proved an easy victim, Tuesday Howe high went down, but not so easy, it taking ten innings to accomplish it, and yesterday Wilmington was defeated although Punchard was out-hit.

CLAN MEMORIAL SERVICE

Clan Johnston and its auxiliary will attend the Merrimack Valley Clan memorial service in Haverhill Sunday night at Spencer church. A bus will leave the Fraternal building at 6. Among the soloists will be Mary Harris of the local auxiliary and Frances Patullo will place a wreath at the front of the church for the local members who have passed on.

LOCAL MAN HONORED BY FELLOW-EMPLOYEES

Peter Cunningham of this town was recently tendered a banquet by his fellow-employees of the firm of Joseph Middleby, Jr., Inc., at the Hotel Bradford at the celebration of his fiftieth anniversary with the company. During the evening he was presented with a silver dollar for each of his fifty years, also a white gold watch, with Mrs. Cunningham receiving fifty American Beauty roses.

QUINTUPLE CRASH

Five machines, one of which was driven by an alleged hit-run thief, were involved in an accident at the corner of Canterbury street and Lowell street early last evening. A South Portland man and woman were slightly injured.

Police last night were seeking the missing driver of a florist truck, and also $55 missing from the injured woman's pocketbook.

MILK TRUCK CRASHES REAR OF BUS

One youngster received a cut above her eye on Tuesday morning when a Vermont milk truck crashed into the rear of a street railway bus carrying a group of school children on South Main street. The girl, Ruth Holt, was just boarding the bus which had pulled over to the side of the road near Gould road when the truck, apparently following too closely, failed to clear the left rear as it attempted to pass it.

People will believe in you if you set them the example.

Pastor Comments on Newspapers

Last Wednesday morning Rev. Frederick B. Noss, who though young, bears the title of dean of Andover's clergy, headed for Dedham where the day before, according to the newspapers, Roger Babson had provoked a split in the Congregational Conference of sufficient proportions to call for pretty scary headlines. Accordingly Andover's dean felt sure that he would step into an atmosphere of tension and intra-denominational bitterness.

But such was not the case. Instead he found an atmosphere of calm and good-feeling. Statistician Babson the day before, he found, had a town meeting desire to give a speech despite the fact that he was not on the program. Those in charge told him that they weren't averse to his giving a speech, but it would mean that the regular program could not be completed. However, he was told that he could go across the street to the Unitarian church and give his speech there, which he did with a number of the curious following him. And that was the "cleft" which the newspapers hurled forth to the world. Next day the same curious were reasserting their faith in the authorized leaders of the Conference.

Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Noss, whose pulpit often resounds with the issues of the day, spoke forth on newspapers and their methods of handling news, whereupon a newspaper quoted him as implying that "all newspapermen are untruthful." To the strict logician the quotation was interesting for since the remark that "all newspapermen are untruthful" was released by a newspaperman, the remark logically was not true and therefore all newspapermen are not untruthful. Next day Rev. Mr. Noss by saying that he had not said that all newspapermen were untruthful lent credence to the remark which he hadn't made.

Joint Concert Well Received

Bank clerks, gardeners, printers, office workers, weavers, tax collectors, insurance men, students in high school, men at the retirement age... from these, united under the name "Andover Male Choir," J. Everett Collins for the past few years has secured music of the very pleasing variety which only a group of men can produce. Last Friday evening Mr. Collins conducted the Male choir in a concert, showed how he had brought along his Beverly Men's Singing club, then showed what he could do with four clubs all together.

To the youngsters in the audience the best parts of the program were "Doctor Foster," "Musical Trust" and the ice cream; to the others some of the religious themes and some of the marching songs were the best. Most of those present concurred with the Townsman's impartial judgment formed before the contest that the Andover Male choir was best, Beverly next.

"Musical Trust" was encored, and the audience would have just as soon had another encore. Miss Marion Abbott and Haverhill's Mildred Nye played a duet accompaniment for this selection, following their very excellent duet work on "Reapers' Song." Of particular interest was "Doctor Foster," with F. H. Foster, one of the most loyal followers of the choir, taking a bow at the close of the parody.

SERVICE CLUB PLANS LADIES' NIGHT

The annual Ladies' night of the Service club is to be held on June 9 at the Phillips Inn, starting at 7.30. Pietro Mordella and his two daughters, accordionists who have made several successful appearances here in the past, will be the featured entertainers. Leonard F. James will give his talk on Emmeline Pankhurst.
